

EVENING TIMES.

CAIRO, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 6, 1865.

THE CITY.

The Cairo Evening Times has a large circulation in this city and county than any other paper published. By virtue of its circulation in the city, and in accordance with the law of Congress requiring the "Letter List" to be published in the paper having the largest circulation within the range of the local Postoffice the Times has been awarded the printing of the Post-office Department as the following communication will evidence.

Post Office, Cairo, July 10, 1865.
To H. L. Goodall, Esq., Editor and Publisher of the "Cairo Evening Times."
Sir, Your paper has been selected in which to publish the "Letter List" of this office, on the ground of its having a larger circulation than any other paper within the delivery of the Cairo Post Office. You are hereby authorized to continue the publication of said letter list as heretofore, on the terms and conditions as specified in the Post Office law and instructions.
Respectfully,
J. C. SLOO, Postmaster.

READ IT.—Do not fail to read the poetry to be found on our second page.

BLUNDER.—Our types make us name Fessenden instead of Dennison as Postmaster General in yesterday's issue. Mistakes will happen.

SOL.—Not "Old Sol," but Sol. Silver, in the absence of Wilcox and Swift, is presiding behind the office counter of the St. Charles temporarily.

UNCALLED FOR TELEGRAPH DISPATCHES.—Dispatches for the following have been received at the Telegraph Office, and not called for:
C. H. Myers, Lieut. C. R. Henderson, Steamer James Powell, Capt. Crane, M. Manners.

CARELESS SHOOTING.—A reckless case of shooting occurred at Pulaski, yesterday. A young man named Kimmel fired a rifle at a mark on an out-house in which his brother was seated—the ball passed through the door of the house and into the body of his brother, killing him instantly.

CATAWBA.—The owner of the light draught passenger and freight packet Catawba, Sanders, is now running her in the Cairo and Mound City trade, landing at each place three times per day. Every effort will be put forth for the accommodation of passengers and shippers. She is undoubtedly an excellent boat for the trade, and her proprietor is fully determined to wear her out in the service indicated.

REMOVAL.—O'Melveny & Hovek have removed their office from Egyptian block to Yost's building on Commercial Avenue. The reputation of these gentlemen as the possessors of local abilities is well established. Mr. Hovek is a young man of fine talent, is the editor of the Valleyblatt and a clear, forcible writer.

EXCERISOR.—Carter, the prince of bakers, has had a new bread wagon built and gorgeously painted, bearing upon its side the word "Excelsior," with which he designs supplying his many local customers. This is something new in Cairo and a good idea.

DON'T KNOW.—We do not know who our friend "Anon" refers to in speaking of some disingenuous servant of the I. C. R. Co. Surely not any of the conductors on this end of the line, as we know them to be gentlemen, one and all. There are several good points in his letter aside from his strictures.

DR. WARDNER.—This gentleman who is Post Surgeon, and was stationed at Mound City for three years, by his urbanity of manner and ability in his profession has made many friends in this city. He has rented an office in Winter's block and, we believe, designs settling among us when his duties as Post Surgeon are dispensed with. Welcome.

WOOD.—Geo. H. Wood is probably better known by the many soldiers and sailors who have been located here, than any citizen of Cairo. In his hands have been placed a large amount of claims against the U. S. Government, amounting in the aggregate to many hundred thousand dollars, and his success in collecting has made him very popular. He is still engaged in the business.

NEW.—Our friend Louis Devoto has opened a fine confectionery establishment in the new brick building near the old depot. The inner walls are tastefully embellished with artistic pictures pleasing to the eye of any connoisseur. Louis also keeps his two other establishments in operation.

COL. F. M. LOW.—This gentleman who recently engaged in the real estate business at Cairo, is, we are pleased to learn, meeting with considerable success, and has had placed in his hands for sale a large amount of property. We can safely commend the Col. to any wishing to sell or purchase, as a prompt, honorable gentleman.

AMUSEMENTS.

ATHLETIC.—This house opened last night to a small audience. The weather was excessively warm, and the opening had been insufficiently advertised, which accounted for the meagre attendance. The performance passed off well. The three lady actresses, Miss Lizzie Madden, Mrs. Dyke and Nellie Lewis, each acquitted themselves more than creditably, the former is by all means the best comedienne, Mrs. Dyke the finest "old woman," and Miss Lewis the most accomplished danseuse ever engaged in this city. The company have not all arrived but will be here this week. To-night two pleasing pieces will be presented.

CATERBURY.—A good house last night—a capital performance. Notwithstanding the amount and quantity of talent now engaged, Shields is negotiating for more, and in a few days will astonish the amusement lovers of the city.

FUNERAL.—The funeral services of Mrs. Caroline Thobald, will take place at the M. E. Church in this city, corner of Eighth and Walnut streets, on Friday morning the 8th inst., at 10 o'clock. The friends of the deceased, and the Arab Fre Company and the public generally are invited to attend. At the close of the services the funeral will proceed from the church to the depot of the I. C. R. R., and thence to the cemetery at Villa Ridge. 42d.

STENCIL PLATES.—Those desiring an approved stencil plate would be well to call on me alongside of Block & Co.'s store, before Wednesday next, as I will leave the city on that day.

LATEST STYLES.—Messrs. Huntington & Dunbar are just in receipt of a large assortment of sleeve buttons and studs of the finest patterns, also a large number of elegant teal seal rings of the best stones and styles, and combs of every description. Call and examine the goods and you will be satisfied.
